The only way to cure them is by using the original imported GOLD MEDAL Haarem Oil Capsules. They are not performing their function. Important Happenings and Local Notes from the County Seat.

I. O. O. F. Anniversary.

The 100th anniversary of the founding of Odd Fellowship in America, was celebrated Thursday evening by Evening Star lodge, No. 37, Morning Star Lodge of Rebekahs, No. 2, and Frontier Encampment No. 13.

The celebration started with a banquet served by the sisters of the Rebekahs at 5.30 to nearly 250 members and friends. The exercises of the evening were held in the I. O. O. F. hall with E. F. Humphrey, Noble Grand, presiding. The program consisted of musical numbers and recitations followed by an address on "Odd Fellowship," by Rev. Douglass G. Guest of St. Albans. Several visitors from sister lodges of Lennoxville, Sherbrooke, P. Q., Derby, Derby Line and other places, were present.

Hospital Day.

May 1st was observed at Newport as hospital day and was a success from all viewpoints. The day was ushered in with sunshine and all who went to School hall for breakfast felt the day was started right. In School hall 15 tables were set ready for guests and looked very attractive with white linen and flowers on each. Dinner was prepared for about 250 while 360 appeared and were served. At supper over 400 were served, the Knight Templars attending in a body.

An entertainment of the usual high order was rendered under the direction of Mrs. D. R. Puffer. The proceeds of the affair have increased the hospital fund over $600.

Church Notes.

All churches are making an appeal to their members to be loyal to the mid-week prayer service Thursday. Will you answer the appeal in person?

Friday evening under the auspices of the Junior League, Rev. Coontz will give an illustrated lecture on "Birds." Come help the little folks and see the bird pictures.

Next Sunday at the Methodist church, Harry Dickens of Orleans, recently returned from Y. M. C. A. work in France, will give an informal talk on his experiences and observations at the front. He will also display a collection of trophies.

About 800 people gathered in the Congregational church Sunday evening for union service to welcome home the returned soldiers. A union chorus of 50 voices with an orchestra, rendered splendid music. The direction of the chorus was by Dr. Cunningham. The several pastors gave short addresses.

A School Entertainment.

The following account is selected for publication from among those written by pupils of the 8th grade:

On Friday evening, April 11th, the pupils of the sixth, seventh and eighth grades of the east, west and south buildings of the Newport graded schools met in the School hall to enjoy an entertainment given by Miss Phelps, the music teacher. Each grade was to furnish a part of the program.

It was a very wet evening and some of the pupils from the east building were late.

The program opened with a piano selection by Alton Huntington, followed by piano duets and solos, and vocal selections. A special selection was a vocal solo by Olive Wilkie from the third grade of the west building. An interesting feature was a violin selection by four boys and a violin solo. There were readings by boys and girls from all the buildings. Some of them were, "Sam's Letter," "Oh Captain, My Captain," "A Little Boy in Blue," "Betty and the Bear," "Anne of Green Gables," "The Song of the Flag," "Sail On," and a composition, "An Unwelcome Bath," by Howard Root. One of the best selections was a piano solo, "Diabolo," by Roland Rogers. One of the most enjoyed selections was given by five of the eighth grade girls of the west building, accompanied by their ukuleles. The closing selection was "Evening Bell," sung by the seventh grade of the west building. When the program was over there was a promenade, after which the pupils left for their homes.

The entertainment was a great success as will be agreed by all who attended.

Charles Richard.

Maurice Norton, Jr., ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Norton, met with misfortune on Wednesday morning while helping celebrate the home coming of our boys. A carriage exploded, a piece of shell hitting him in the eye. He was taken to St. Johnsbury where upon examination with the X-ray it was found necessary to remove the eye.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Fuller returned Thursday from Boston. They enjoyed a trip ten miles down the harbor to meet a transport with the 14th Engineers from France, their son being with this contingent. Mr. Fuller speaks very highly of the treatment the parents and relatives received at the hands of the committee in charge and of the welcome given the soldiers.

Young to the Akraia. Perley Hill has also recently been elected editor-in-chief of "The Cynic," the U. V. M. weekly paper. These three students were all of the class of 1916 of Newport high school.

for her husband's uncle, N. S. Allen, and is still with Mrs. Allen.

Miss Muriel Kendrick of Lyndon Institute accompanied by her cousin, Miss Donna Sherburne of Lyndon, spent the week-end at Miss Muriel's home here.

Mrs. Fred Spencer of Lyndon is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. W. D. Reed. She brought her little grandson here to be cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Reed.

The entertainment Friday evening drew a good crowd and was well worth listening to. The program consisted of instrumental duets, Mrs. Adin Armstrong and Mrs. Curtis Cobb, pianists, and Mrs. Armstrong, pianist, and Arthur Bates, violinist, and readings by Mrs. Arthur Bates and Miss Irene Temple.

NATHAN STOWELL ALLEN

Another of our townspeople has passed along that road from whence none return. We shall miss the familiar figure on our street. Mr. Allen was always quiet and unassuming but was respected and liked by everyone who has ever known him. His father, Robert Allen, came here from England, and brought his four small motherless children. After living here a few years he married Miss Chastina Pomeroy and to them were born five sons and four daughters, of whom Nathan was the oldest, and he would have been 80 years old had he lived until the 24th of May.

Mr. Allen has always lived here and followed the life of a farmer. Mr. Allen was married in February of 1867 to Miss Carrie Robinson of this place who died in 1896, and in June, 1899, he married her older sister, Miss Cornelia Robinson, who survives him. His home life was always most pleasant and he was a loyal, faithful member of the Congregational church for many years. He was sick only one week and died May 2, of pneumonia. The funeral was held at the home Sunday, May 4, his pastor, Rev. W. C. Johnson officiating, assisted by the Rev. G. W. Collins. H. G. Rutter was director and Wm. Nelson, N. C. Eastman, J. W. Dudley and F. L. Farlin, bearers.

Burial was here by the side of his first wife. There were beautiful flowers from the Congregational society, and from relatives and friends. Relatives present at the funeral were his nephew, Wilbur Allen and wife, of this place and son, Ora Allen, of Island Pond; nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robinson, niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nelson, all of Newport, and niece, Miss Alice Robinson of Montpelier. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Allen in her sorrow, as she is in very poor health and will so sadly miss him whose first care and thought has been for her. She appreciates so much the many kindnesses done her at this time. Mr. Allen was the very last one of the entire family.
